

Valparaiso University

1409 Chapel Drive
Valparaiso, IN 46383

Director of Writing

This is a tenured appointment in the Department of English at the rank of associate or full professor. Candidates must have a PhD in Rhetoric and Composition or a closely related field, a distinguished research record, and evidence of excellence in the teaching of writing. We seek an experienced writing program administrator prepared to help develop and implement a university-wide writing in the disciplines model. Assisted by directors of freshman core, a writing center, a teaching resource center, and an academic success center, the successful candidate will direct writing in all colleges of the university. She or he will teach one course each semester. Candidates should be interested in working at a university engaged in issues in Christian higher education in the Lutheran tradition. Salary is competitive.

Review of applications begins Nov. 21. Interviews will be held at CCC and the search will continue until the position is filled. Send letter of application, c.v., and names and addresses of four references to Edward Uehling, Chair, Department of English, 1409 Chapel Drive, Valparaiso IN 46383.

Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to cultural diversity and an ability to work with individuals or groups from diverse backgrounds. Valparaiso University does not unlawfully discriminate and aims to employ persons of various backgrounds and experiences to help constitute a diverse community.
