

Remember that students who apply early to Valparaiso University receive top consideration for scholarships, awards, and other financial aid.

Apply to Valparaiso University!

1. Complete Valpo's freshman/undergraduate application in one of the following ways:
 - Download a paper copy of the application (2.8 MB) If you require Adobe Reader to properly view the paper application, please download it here.
 - Complete Valpo's online application
 - Submit the online Common Application - The online application is hosted at the Common Application, which allows students to apply to multiple schools simultaneously. Valpo requires a short supplement to the Common Application, available online automatically after completing the application.
2. Submit your completed application to the Valparaiso University Office of Admission along with:
 - Your personal statement.
 - Your standardized test scores (SAT or ACT) from the testing agency or on your official high school transcript. Valpo's SAT code is 1874 and ACT code is 1256.
 - Your official high school transcript. (If you do not meet the minimum course requirements, you may be contacted for additional information.)
 - Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, or other college-level test results.
3. Download and print the Counselor Evaluation Form. Please be sure to follow the instructions at the top of the page. If you require Adobe Reader to properly view the evaluation form, please download it here.
