

LIFE AFTER VALPO

Job/graduate school — Overall job/graduate school placement rate for Valpo 2007 graduates = 94.8%!

- Arts & Sciences = 93%
- Business Administration = 98%
- Engineering = 100%
- Nursing = 98%

Employment — Valpo graduates are employed by companies/organizations such as:

- The American Heart Association
- Chicago Board of Trade
- Mayo Clinic
- Hong Kong International School
- PricewaterhouseCoopers
- Caterpillar
- Biomet Orthopedics, Inc.
- Catholic Charities
- Johns Hopkins University
- Eli Lilly & Co.
- GE Medical Systems
- Lincoln Park Zoo
- National Geographic
- IBM
- U.S. Air Force Weather Agency
- Lutheran Volunteer Corps
- NASA
- Motorola
- Ogilvy Public Relations Worldwide
- Duneland School Corporation
- NBC 5 Chicago
- National Public Radio
- Meguiar's International
- Coors Brewing Company

Advanced degrees — Valpo alumni earn advanced degrees from institutions like:

- Oxford University
- Carnegie Mellon
- Concordia Theological Seminary
- Duke
- Harvard
- Yale Divinity School
- Northwestern
- Stanford
- University of Illinois
- Juilliard
- University of Minnesota School of Law

Volunteers — Among colleges and universities with less than 5,000 undergraduates, Valpo ranks No. 24 in the number of graduates serving as Peace Corps volunteers. Currently 16 are serving abroad.

Fulbright awards — Valpo ranks second among U.S. master's degree institutions in producing winners of prestigious Fulbright awards for international study, research, and teaching.

Honors college — Graduates of Valpo's interdisciplinary honors college — Christ College — receive automatic acceptance into the Valparaiso University School of Law (with minor exceptions).

Graduate degree — About 50% of Valpo alumni eventually earn at least one graduate degree.

Medical school — 85% of Valpo's pre-medical students are admitted to medical school within a year of graduation; for Christ College students, the percentage is 100.