

FROM YOUR 50TH REUNION COMMITTEE CHAIR

Dear Fellow Alumni,

Fifty years ago, Valpo looked much different. Does it seem just like yesterday? We trekked much further between classes than today's students ever will. Our time on campus involved many walks between east and west—"old" and "new." This year, come back for Homecoming and Reunion Weekend and walk this same bridge—the one between old memories and new, the space of our Valpo experience. Many buildings from our memory are gone, and while new ones have risen to fill the gaps, the history of our time here is real and worth remembering. The Chapel of the Resurrection also is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. It has stood strong as a beacon for other students for five decades. Come back and celebrate those years when campus was changing into what it would someday become—a touchstone of your past and a thriving community for the future.

Homecoming and Reunion Weekend 2009 will take place October 9–11. Your reunion committee has been working hard to create a reunion that will be something truly special—a celebration! Do not miss your chance to relive your Valpo memories, renew friendships and re-experience all that our college days meant to us.

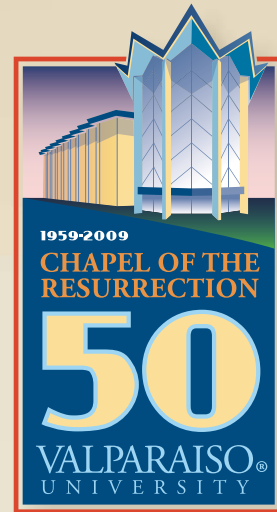

This brochure includes the basic weekend schedule. Many more events are listed online at valpo.edu/alumni/homecoming. We encourage you to come back to campus and take advantage of all that the weekend has to offer.

We cannot wait to see you.

Jackie (Wagemann '59) Jungemann
50th Reunion Committee Chair

P.S. Remember to return the Reunion Biography Form that you received in May. Our 50th reunion will be commemorated with a class photo and a memory book. Your information also may be submitted online at: valpo.edu/alumni/homecoming. The memory book will be provided to everyone who submits a biography, regardless of whether you attend the weekend.
