

CAREER LIBRARY

The Career Library offers a wealth of hands-on information for students at all levels of career exploration—from self-assessment to employment resources to graduate school information. These resources are available to any student during our working hours, Monday to Friday, 8 am to 5 pm.

Some of the topics you can explore in the Library include the following:

- Information about hundreds of careers
- Career decision making
- Identifying and developing majors
- Relating majors to careers
- Career biographies
- Career outlooks for the future

A few examples of our most popular titles include:
