

The College of Arts and Sciences, the largest college of Valparaiso University, consists of twenty-one departments and provides the University with its program of general education for all students as well as advanced work in the liberal arts, the sciences and in several professional areas.

Academic Departments

Department of Art > Facts | Web site

Department of Biology > Facts | Web site

Department of Chemistry > Facts | Web site

Department of Communication > Facts | Web site

Department of Economics > Facts | Web site

Department of Education > Facts | Web site

Department of English > Facts | Web site

Department of Foreign Languages & Literatures > Facts | Web site

Department of Geography & Meteorology > Facts | Web site

Department of History > Facts | Web site

Department of Mathematics & Computer Science > Facts | Web site

Department of Music > Facts | Web site

Department of Philosophy > Facts | Web site

Department of Physical Education > Facts | Web site

Department of Physics & Astronomy > Facts | Web site

Department of Political Science > Facts | Web site

Department of Psychology > Facts | Web site

Department of Social Work > Facts | Web site

Department of Sociology & Criminology > Facts | Web site

Department of Theatre > Facts | Web site

Department of Theology > Facts | Web site