

How do you stack up?

Valpo is a national and international leader in the Assessment Center concept with one of the few centers in the country. Our Assessment Center puts you face-to-face with seasoned professionals so you can showcase your skills and build your network. Through simulated business situations, students demonstrate their decision-making, communication, and problem-solving skills then get direct feedback from the professional panel.

Typically, more than 80 regional executives and 200 sophomores and juniors participate in half-day Assessment Center programs.
