

Dave Schroeder

Associate Professor of Information and Decision Sciences

214 Urschel Hall 464-5050

Biography

Dr. Schroeder teaches classes in Management Information Systems, Database Management and Decision Support Systems, Business Spreadsheet Applications, Business Applications Programming, E-Commerce and E-Business, and now Information Systems and Information Technology and E-Commerce and E-Marketing in the MBA program.

Schroeder's research has focused on internationalizing the information systems curriculum, information systems ethics, classroom uses of the Internet, and the yearly salary survey for the Institute of Management Accountants with Dr. Karl Reichardt. He has published in the Journal of International Business Studies, Strategic Finance, The International Journal of Business Disciplines, Journal of Information Systems Education, Journal of Teaching in International Business, Journal of Teaching in MIS, as well as others.

Education

Ph.D. Business Administration/MIS - Oklahoma State University 1990
M.S. Business Education - Oklahoma State University 1984
B.A. Humanities - Oklahoma State University 1971