

This minor is designed to provide an international focus for students majoring in another program in the College of Business Administration. Drawing on a variety of fields within business study as well as foreign languages, history, political science and geography, students gain perspective on the interdependent global environment that characterizes today's business world.

Students enroll in courses such as:

- International Finance
- Cross-Cultural Management
- International Marketing
- Global Operations and Supply-Chain Management