

MANAGEMENT

Preparation for a variety of leadership settings, both public and private is the goal of the Management major. There is an emphasis on values and ethics in courses that help develop skills in critical thinking, logical decision-making, and thoughtful analysis of complex problems. Challenges faced by today's business managers are examined throughout the curriculum.

Courses include:

- Managing Human Resources
- Leadership and Interpersonal Skills
- Managing Technology and Change
- Ethics in Business
- High Performance Organizations
- Cross-cultural Management
