

MARKETING

A major in Marketing gives students the skills to build an effective marketing program while building trust and loyalty. Marketing graduates work in a variety of fields including manufacturing, research, public relations, advertising, brand management and more.

Marketing coursework includes:

- Statistics for Decision Making
- Marketing Research
- Sales Management
- Buyer Behavior
- International Marketing
- Marketing Strategy and Policy