

CHAPEL 50TH CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Thursday, September 24, 2009

Christ College Symposium Lecture: "The Shape of a New Era: Valparaiso's Chapel of the Resurrection in Historical Context"

Dr. Gretchen Buggeln 6:30 p.m. Harre Union Ballroom

The architect of Valparaiso's Chapel of the Resurrection, Charles Stade, participated in an international conversation among architects and theologians about the proper style and form of religious buildings in modern communities. This presentation will examine the chapel in light of this architectural movement and consider its relationship to contemporary thought about the place of religion in the revolutionary post-World War II world.

Dr. Buggeln is the author of Temples of Grace: The Transformation of Connecticut's Churches, 1790-1840 (2003). Her current book project is "Churches for Today: Modernism and Suburban Expansion in Post-WWII America," which features Charles Stade as one of her principal subjects.

Reception to follow.
