

SENIOR COURSEWORK

Typical Senior Year Coursework

Seminars (3-4 credits) Senior students choose additional seminars and have an option to write an honors thesis in conjunction with one of their courses.

Colloquium (1 credit) provides a capstone, integrative experience for seniors in which students explore the relationship between faith and contemporary culture or refine their understandings of their own spiritual journeys through autobiographical narrative.

The PDF Footer