

CC STUDENT PROFILE

Olivia Hillmer '09 Tampa, Florida Classics and Humanities Majors Membership in Eta Sigma Phi, competing on a ballroom dancing team and performing as a cellist in the Symphony and Chamber Music ensembles. Olivia's activities at Valpo. Highlights - A Kemper Scholar since 2006, Olivia interned at Leslie Hillier Institute of Chicago. She will attend Yale University in fall 2009 for an M.A. in Visual Arts and Theater.

Bonnie Keane '09 Tinley Park, Illinois American Studies and Spanish Majors Bonnie's activities in the Debate team for Christ College's Freshman Debates and was a staff writer for The Torch, Valparaiso University. Highlights – A Kemper Scholar since 2006, Bonnie interned with the Chicago Volunteer Legal Services Center at the Cohen Law Group. She was recently named the 2009 VUAA Distinguished Student Award Winner. In 2009 Bonnie will study law at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri.

Chet Cameron Portage, Indiana Senior, History Major and Political Science Minor Chet is active in Phi Alpha Theta, the history honors society and he is the treasurer of Pre-Law Society. Highlights - Chet's interest in law lead him to work as a mayoral fellow in Chicago Mayor Daley's office and at the First Bank, Chicago, Illinois.

Emily Von Qualen Carroll, Iowa Junior, Sociology Major Emily is a Kemper Scholar selected in 2009. She is currently serving as a Chicago Volunteer Legal Services this summer. Highlights – In the fall Emily will be studying in Washington, D.C.

Claude Renner Phoenix, Arizona Sophomore, Humanities Major Expanding on his desire for social justice, he is a member of the Social Action Leadership Team (SALT), an organization addressing many different social issues. He is currently working to provide clean water to a small rural village in China. Claude sings and plays guitar at the morning Mass at the Chapel of the Resurrection and serves as a Eucharistic Minister and lector at the Catholic Student Center, St. Thomas. One of Valpo's two Kemper Scholars selected in 2009 Claude joins a select group of students from across the country to benefit from the combination of a liberal arts education and opportunities for career exploration and summer internships.

Andrew Jarratt Grafton, Wisconsin Sophomore, Computer Science and Humanities Majors Andrew is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and enjoys helping others with computers. He works with the office of Admissions hosting prospective student visit days. He also enjoys playing a variety of intramural sports. Highlights – One of Valpo's two Kemper Scholars selected in 2009 Andrew joins a prestigious group of individuals who will begin their internship experiences in the fall.

Ruth Moberg Foster '09 Worcester, Massachusetts History Major Ruth served as assistant to the assistant sacristan at the Chapel of the Resurrection. She will be attending the Master of Divinity program at the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg. Highlights – Ruth was recently awarded the Library Award for her senior honor thesis "All-American Girls Playing the American Game: Understanding American Professional Baseball League (1943-1954)".

Courtney Heitkamp '10 Sioux Falls, South Dakota Political Science and Humanities Majors Court College Student Steering Committee, Pi Sigma Alpha (political science honorary), College Republic Advisory Council. She also enjoys playing piano with the worship team at her church.

Highlights – Courtney serves as this year's student body president. As president, Courtney leads addressed the campus community at Opening Convocation.

The PDF Footer