

COMMUNICATION INTERNSHIPS

All Communication department majors require students to complete one 3-credit internship (COMM-386). Students complete an internship with an organization so they may experience what professional life in that major might include. Students often locate internships on their own, though the Communication department can provide leads.

Students must adhere to the requirements and deadlines listed on this site. The internship is graded on a Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory basis.

The PDF Footer