

FRESH CHOICES

Look for nutrition information near every serving line. Special events are also planned throughout the year including Adventures in Dining when we showcase new menu items that we would like you to try. The feedback and surveys from this free event help us expand student choices.

Athletes may choose to participate in our training table plan that offers larger portions at dinner meals Monday through Thursday with a plan added to your required buy-in level.

The PDF Footer