

Release for Limited Criminal History Information

I, _____ grant the Department of Education at Valparaiso University permission to access the Indiana State Police Limited Criminal History record.

The document will be sealed in an envelope and issued to the student. If a record of criminal activity is discovered the student is required to contact the Professional Development and Placement Coordinator immediately. Failure to do so is a violation of the honor code. If a record is found the student may NOT attend the field site until the school corporation reviews the information and grants permission.

The student is responsible to provide the information to the school administration at their assigned school site. The following information is required to run the Criminal History Report as mandated by Access/Indiana:
