

STUDENT ELECTED TO IMEA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

VU Music Education sophomore Leigh Wiedelman was elected to the Indiana Music Educators Association Board of Directors as Collegiate Representative by the organization's collegiate members of Indiana. The board consists of 30 people, 13 of which have voting privileges (8 area representatives, 2 collegiate representatives, the president, president-elect, and past president). Leigh is the second VU student elected to this board with Pete Smucker having been the first.
