

Engineering is Global!

Engineers today work in a global environment which requires special skills. The Valparaiso University International Engineering Programs (VIEP) develop these skills and provide experience necessary to succeed in the international marketplace. Specifically, the program prepares Valpo engineers to be:

- technically adept
- broadly knowledgeable
- multilingual
- culturally aware
- innovative and entrepreneurial
- and professionally flexible and mobile*

*From In Search of Global Engineering Excellence (Continental AG)

Valparaiso International Engineering Programs:

- VIEP-German
- VIEP-French
- VIEP in China

The Valparaiso University International Engineering Programs are coordinated jointly by the College of Engineering and the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.