Your FAFSA needs to be signed.

We have received a recent transmission of your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) from the Federal Processing Center. Your FAFSA was incomplete because it was missing one or more signatures. We are unable to process any federal aid until your FAFSA is signed.

To update your FAFSA with the needed signatures, please do one of the following:

Go to www.fafsa.ed.gov, log in, and click on: "Provide Signatures"

~Follow their instruction to either sign the FAFSA with their Signature Page that you will mail to the U.S. Department of Education, or sign your FAFSA electronically with a PIN.*

*(For dependent students) both you and at least one parent must have a PIN. If you do not have one or can't remember it, go to www.pin.ed.gov and follow the instructions to request a new or duplicate PIN.

-OR-

Read, sign, date, and return this form to our office.

We will update your 2012-2013 FAFSA with the signature(s).

(Step Seven on the FAFSA)

If you are the student, by signing this application you certify that you (1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education, (2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (4) will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan, and (5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant for more than one school for the same period of time.

If you are the parent or the student, by signing this application you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form. This information may include U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you sign any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a Personal Identification Number (PIN), you certify that you are the person identified by the PIN and have not disclosed that PIN to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

Everyone whose information was given on the FAFSA should sign below.
