

FOLA: FOCUS ON LATIN AMERICA

Throughout the 2008 - 2009 academic year, the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, along with its co-sponsors, will offer a series of events which will focus on the history, culture and current events of Latin America. SPONSORS: Foreign Languages & Literatures • IECA • History • Brauer Museum of Art • Office of International Programs • LIVE \(Latinos in Valparaiso\) • Union Board • Cultural Arts Committee

SPRING SEMESTER

JANUARY 19 Lecture 2:30 pm
Christopher Center, room 205

Lecture: A presentation by IU Northwest Professor Neil Needleman on "From Revolution to Liberation: Latin America Proven a New World" An MLK Day Focus Session

MARCH 18 Lecture 7 pm
Kallay-Christopher 112

Lecture: Presentation and discussion, led by Professor Blacker-Hanson, on education and teacher-activists in the struggle for equality

MARCH IECA Role Play

Role Play Simulation of IECA and foreign language majors

APRIL 1 Performance 7 pm
Kallay-Christopher 112

Special Performance by members of LIVE (Latinos in Valparaiso Excellence)

FALL SEMESTER

SEPTEMBER 3 Dance Lessons 7 pm
Union Great Hall

Dance Lessons: A celebration of Latin music and dance led by Professor Neil Zamora-Breckenridge

OCTOBER 1 Student Coffee Hour 7 pm
Brauer Museum of Art

Brauer Museum's exhibit on Spanish and Latin American art with Professors Carlos Miguel-Pueyo and Stephen Hault-Saros

NOVEMBER 5 Academic Quiz Bowl 7 pm
Huegli Hall Lumina Room

Academic Super Bowl "Academic Super Bowl" on Latin American students

The PDF Footer