RECOMMENDATION FOR RESIDENCY IN THE GERMAN HOUSE

(Due on Monday, January 31, 2011 at the Housing Office; 121 Kretzmann Hall)

To the Applicant:

Please ask your referee to return this form to the Office of Housing (Kretzmann 121) by January 31, 2011. Please check one of the statements listed below and sign as indicated:

_____ I waive my right to access of this form and other material connected to the selection process.

_____ I do not waive my right to access of this form and other material connected to the selection process.

Signature _____ Date _____

* * * * *

To the Reference Person:

(Applicant's Name) _____ has applied to live in the Kade-Duesenberg German House and Cultural Center. S/he has given your name as a reference person.

Students who live in the German House are expected to serve non-resident students through planned and intentional social gatherings and educational outreach programs (for example: hosting German Club activities; planning informational gatherings about study abroad; or organizing German cultural events). Further, they are expected to speak only German in public areas of the German House.

Your honest appraisal of this individual's potential as a resident of the German House is greatly appreciated. Others will comment on the applicant's German ability; we ask you to comment on whether the applicant will contribute to the success of the German House with regard to the expectations described above.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR RESIDENTS

I. Eligibility

A. Applicants must have completed at least the 204 course in German or have reached that level of German through other means by the time residency begins.

B. Applications will be accepted from any student, regardless of major; international students whose native language is German will be considered if space is available.

C. Assuming that applicants are fully qualified in terms of language background, selection will be based on a combination of class standing, GPA, and promise to contribute to the success of the German House. Appropriate gender assignment within a suite may effect selection.

II. The Facility

The Kade-Duesenberg German House and Cultural Center is located at 822 Mound Street.

Student residential units, located on the second floor, are configured in suites. Three suites have two bedrooms and one bathroom; a fourth suite has one double room and a bathroom. Two rooms are singles. The facility is co-educational, but each suite will house either all women or all men. The native-speaker Resident Assistant resides in a separate suite, also located on the second floor. All bedrooms are fully networked.

A great room with dining facilities and an adjacent kitchen are also located on the second floor. All residents participate Sunday - Thursday in the common preparation, enjoyment, and clean-up of the evening meal. The residential floor also has laundry facilities, a small study/computer room, and a television room.

The first floor of the facility houses a lobby and gallery space, a large conference room, a small seminar room (the "Library"), a dining servery, office space for the Director of the Kade-Duesenberg German House and Cultural Center, and a modest apartment for visiting scholars. A secure entry configuration ensures that visitors to the first floor do not have access to the second floor unless escorted by a resident.

III. Rules

A. The same rules that govern other residence halls will be observed at the German House, particularly with regard to alcohol and visitation.

B. Students are expected to use German with one another in all public areas of the German House. English may be used with non-German speaking guests, but should be restricted to the suite areas.

C. Residents will host regular German Club meetings. Residents are expected to develop and participate in additional activities that include non-residents and that promote use of German and knowledge of German culture.

D. Students are expected to take their weekday evening meals (Sunday - Thursday) together at the House with preparation and expense to be shared equally among the residents. Sophomores and juniors will additionally purchase a meal card ($320 per semester in 2009/2010) to use for breakfast and/or lunch elsewhere on campus.
