Lutheran Volunteer Corps (LVC) Benefits at Valparaiso University

Volunteers having a bachelor's degree and completing one year of service in the Lutheran Volunteer Corps will be eligible to receive special program benefits at Valparaiso University that will save both time and money towards a Master's degree. These benefits include:

- ⇒ Using their volunteer experience for 3 to 6 credits of internship, independent study, or elective credit, which can be applied towards their VU graduate degree requirements.
- ⇒ A scholarship based on the amount of approved credits they receive, as well as additional scholarship opportunities in select programs such as Chinese Studies, Nursing and Counseling.
- ⇒ The opportunity to be selected as a Graduate Intern or to qualify for other assistantship positions.
- ⇒ The ability to transfer an additional 3 credits from another accredited university into their VU program.
