Valparaiso University Order of Omega

The Order of Omega is a National Greek leadership honor society for junior and senior members of the Greek community. Members are selected in the fall and spring semesters based on excellence in leadership, academics, involvement, and service. The number of students allowed into the Order of Omega is no more than three (3%) of the total Greek undergraduate students.

Order of Omega is involved in hosting community service projects, the Annual Greek Awards ceremony in May as well as educational programs for the Greek community.
