

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Founded in 1909, the North-American Interfraternity Conference is an association of men's inter/national social fraternities. On campus, the Interfraternity Council or IFC works as an umbrella organization to all fraternities. IFC is multifaceted organization whose purposes include:

- Representing the fraternity interest to the University and community;
- Promotion of the concept of self-governance among Greek organizations;
- Overseeing membership recruitment activities and promoting community service.

For a copy of the Valparaiso University Interfraternity Council Constitution and Bylaws see the Documents section of this website.

Purpose of the North-American Interfraternity Conference

The purpose of the North-American Interfraternity Conference shall be to promote the well-being of its members fraternities by providing such services to them as the House of Delegates. These services include, but are not limited to the following:

- Promotion of cooperative action in dealing with fraternity matters of mutual concern;
- Research in areas of fraternity operations and procedures;
- Fact-finding and data gathering and the dissemination of such data to the member fraternities;
- Conference action shall not in any way abrogate the right of its member fraternities to self-determination.

Spring- Fall 2009 Interfraternity Council Executive Officers

President Bruce Morgan, II Bruce.Morgan@valpo.edu

Vice President of Recruitment Jacob Schur Jacob.Schur@valpo.edu

Secretary/Treasurer Brett Krill Brett.Krill@valpo.edu

Director of Public Relations Matthew Noffke Matthew.Noffke@valpo.edu

The PDF Footer