

FACULTY PROFILE

Meredith Berg, Ph.D.

Professor

Huegli Hall 326219-464-5337 meredith.berg@valpo.edu

Biography

Professor Berg joined the the History Department in 1963 as instructor. He has served continuously in the Valparaiso University History Department since that time with the exception of the academic year 1970-1971 when he taught for the University of Maryland (Overseas Division).

Professsor Berg currently teaches courses on Progressivism, the Depression and World War II, the post-World War II Counterculture and Modern America.

In addition to book reviews published in a variety of journals, Prof. Berg has written scholarly articles for Journalism Quarterly and the Historian, and has contributed a chapter ("Protecting National Interests by Treaty: The Second London Naval Conference, 1934-1936") to B.J.C. McKercher's Arms Limitation and Disarmament.

In his spare time Professor Berg likes to travel.

Education

B.A. - St. Olaf College M.A. and Ph.D. - Tulane University

Research Interests

Twentieth Century America

The PDF Footer