

CO-OP

Cooperative Education for IECA students is usually full-time paid work experience abroad for which some academic credit may be earned. Sometimes a student will take a cooperative education placement during the summer (for one academic credit). Others will leave campus for a full semester (for three academic credits), then return to campus the following semester. Several placements are regularly available in Germany; other sites require that a placement be located with the assistance of the Director of Cooperative Education.

The PDF Footer