

CONTENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM DOCUMENTATION

Here is information to use while learning and working in Cascade Server, Valparaiso University's content management system. The links on the left represent the basic topics required to manage your Web site's content within the CMS.

Requesting Access to the CMS

New users are added to the CMS by Web Services. Access requests can be submitted by entering a HEAT ticket, or by contacting Web Services. Once new users are added to the CMS, Site Managers will need to add users to its Group.
