

PAUL M. KOHLHOFF

*Room 209, Heritage Hall
651 S. College Ave.
Valparaiso, Indiana 46383
Phone: (219) 465-7903
e-mail: paul.kohlhoff@valpo.edu*

EDUCATION:

- 1986 Juris Doctor, Valparaiso University School of Law, Valparaiso, Indiana. Rank: 28/114
- 1981 Bachelor of Science, Business Management, Purdue University School of Management, West Lafayette, Indiana. G.P.A. 5.48/6.0

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

- 2004 – Present Assistant Professor of Law and Director, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic, Valparaiso University School of Law. Instruct 3rd year students on procedural and substantive federal income tax issues. Supervise student representatives in representation of low income taxpayers before the IRS and United States Tax Court. Oversee grant administration for Tax Clinic funding. Also teach courses on tax practice and procedure, tax policy, and international taxation.
- 2002-2003 Lecturer, Business Law (GBG 260), Purdue University North Central, Westville, Indiana. Lecturer in the general introduction to business law class for undergraduate management majors.
- Fall 2000 Adjunct Professor of Law, Tax Policy Seminar, Valparaiso University School of Law, Valparaiso, Indiana. Conducted tax policy research and writing seminar for 3rd year law students.
- 1980-1981 Economics Teaching Assistant, Purdue University School of Management, West Lafayette, Indiana. In senior year, selected to teach an introductory macroeconomics course to freshman and sophomore students.

LEGAL EXPERIENCE:

- 1994 - 2004 Paul M. Kohlhoff, Attorney at Law, P.C., Valparaiso, Indiana. Private practice of law concentrating in the representation of individuals and businesses in tax, real estate, business formation, wills, trusts, probate, and estate planning matters.

