

VISIT US!

Learn more about us through our Graduate School of Business Visits. While visiting you will be able to learn more about your programs structure, have your admission and financial aid questions answered, and interact with current students. You may also have the opportunity to sit in on a class or meet with faculty members, depending on your personal needs.

Most of our visits are set up on an individual basis, so please contact our office or fill out the form below in order to arrange a meeting that works best for you!

Sit in on a currently offered class! Come to campus and observe what it is like to really be a student in the Graduate School of Business. You must register in advance to sit in on a class as space is limited. Classes begin at 6:00PM and run until approximately 9:40PM. Prospective students are invited to arrive at 6:00PM and leave at whatever point they choose.

Upcoming Open Houses The next scheduled open house is on Thursday, November 5th, 2009, at 5:00 P.M. Central Standard time in Urschel Hall. You will have the opportunity to learn more about the program as well as the chance to sit in on one of our current classes - Quantitative Business Analysis (taught by Dr. Sandy Strasser). Don't miss this great chance to see what the Valpo MBA is all about!

Experience the Environment All MBA classes and faculty offices are located in Urschel Hall (home of the College of Business Administration) so we have a tight-knit community focused on professional and personal growth. Urschel is a wireless facility equipped with state-of-the-art electronic classrooms.

Campus Map and Directions To see a map of Valpo's campus, click here. The Business School is building #4, Urschel Hall. For easy access to the Business School, bypass the main campus entrance off Route 30 and turn onto Sturdy Road (click here for directions). We are only an hour's drive from Chicago, South Bend, and southwestern Michigan (on Central Time).
