

FACULTY PROFILE

Cynthia Fudala

Adjunct Instructor

VUCA B530(219)

464-6935 CindyFudala@comcast.net

Biography

Cynthia Tenny-Fudala, received a Bachelor's degree in flute performance from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and a Master's degree and a Certificate in Performance from Northwestern University. Her teachers were Katherine Borst Jones, Kyril Magg, Jack Wellbaum, and Walfrid Kujala. Cindy is currently principal flutist of the Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra and the Northwest Indiana Symphony. She has performed with many Chicago area ensembles including the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the Elgin Symphony, the Rockford Symphony, the Chicago Chamber Orchestra, the South Bend Symphony, Civic Orchestra of Chicago, and the Lincoln Opera Company. She also has performed with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, the Springfield Symphony, Sarasota Opera Festival, Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, Dayton Symphony Orchestra, the Los Angeles "Gilbert and Sullivan" Opera Co, and the Chautauqua Festival Orchestra. As a concerto competition winner, she has been a soloist with the Cincinnati Concert Orchestra and the Northwestern Symphony Orchestra, and has been a featured soloist with the Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra, the Northwest Indiana Symphony, the Lincolnwood Chamber orchestra, the Valparaiso University Chamber Orchestra, and the Lima Area Concert Band. Cindy is currently the Instructor

Department of Music - Valparaiso University of Flute at Valparaiso University, Concordia University, and the First
Conservatory of Music, La Grange, IL.

The PDF Footer