

PHIL 330. PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION.

Cr. 3. A philosophical analysis of some of the beliefs, concepts, and problems involved in traditional theistic belief and its critics. Problems include arguments for the existence of God, religious experience, the problem of evil, and faith and reason. Course prerequisite can be satisfied by any Level II Theology course instead of a philosophy course.

The PDF Footer