

GOING TO LAW SCHOOL

On this page, you will find links that will help you get ready actually to attend law school. Whether you attend Valparaiso University School of Law or some other school, the resources available on this page will have information that you need to know. Whether you are looking for information about financing law school, areas of specialization in the legal profession, or just information about some specific law school, we hope that you can find the answer here.

If you need more help, remember that Valpo has many knowledgeable Pre-Law Advisors who are happy to help you find what you need to know.

The PDF Footer