

Assistant Professor of Management Job Posting

Valparaiso University College of Business (<http://www.valpo.edu/cob/>) invites applications for a tenure-track position as assistant professor of Management beginning Fall 2015. The primary focus of the search is on business ethics, with a secondary interest in entrepreneurship, management, or organizational behavior. Minimum qualifications include candidacy (ABD) for the Ph.D. in Business Ethics, Entrepreneurship, or Management from an AACSB accredited institution. A strong theoretical and/or applied background and teaching expertise in business and professional ethics is essential. Research or teaching expertise in related fields, such as business, government, and society; corporate social responsibility; sustainability; social and environmental entrepreneurship; global human rights; and organizational behavior is desirable. Practical business experience, entrepreneurship, teaching in executive education, and experience with minority and international students are pluses. Successful applicants will demonstrate a commitment to cultural diversity and the ability to work with individuals or groups from diverse backgrounds. Salary is competitive.

Responsibilities include teaching nine hours per semester at the undergraduate and graduate levels; course/curriculum development; research/scholarship; and college/university committee assignments and/or initiatives. All faculty are expected to be excellent teachers, to be committed to innovative delivery of instruction and the effective use of technology including accelerated and distance learning, to produce peer reviewed scholarship, and to provide service to the college, university, and community. Candidates should also be interested in working at a university engaged in issues in Christian higher education in the Lutheran tradition.

Valparaiso University enrolls over 4,500 undergraduate and graduate students and has been ranked one of the "Best Master's Universities in the Midwest" and "One of the Best Buys" by U.S. News and World Report. The College of Business is AACSB accredited, serves over 400 undergraduate students offering the B.S.B.A. with concentrations in Accounting, Business Analytics, Finance, International Business, Management, and Marketing. It also serves MBA students in full-time day and part-time evening programs. VU is located in Valparaiso, Indiana, a community of 30,000 residents with quality public schools and light industry, and is situated about 15 miles from Lake Michigan and about an hour from downtown Chicago.

Please submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and names of three references to Ms. Kendra Adamson, Administrative Assistant to the Dean (Kendra.Adamson@valpo.edu). Applications will be considered until the position is filled; however, applicants are encouraged to submit applications by September 15, 2013 for full consideration.

Valparaiso University does not unlawfully discriminate and aims to employ persons of various backgrounds and experiences to help constitute a diverse community. Its entire EOE policy can be found at <http://www.valpo.edu/equalopportunity/index.php>

Candidates who submit names of references should expect that the College will contact references, in confidence, and that credentials will be confirmed prior to hire. Employment will require a criminal background check.
