Clinical Instructor for Psychiatric Mental Health Nursing

To accommodate growth, the College of Nursing and Health Professions (CONHP) at Valparaiso University invites applications for a Clinical Instructor for Psychiatric Mental Health Nursing.

Valparaiso University is a distinguished private university of 4,500 students located in Valparaiso, IN, one hour southeast of downtown Chicago. Candidates should be interested in working at a university engaged in issues in Christian higher education in the Lutheran tradition. The College of Nursing and Health Professions has programs in nursing (BSN, MSN, and DNP), health care leadership (BSHCL), health administration (MHA), public health (BSPH and MPH), and physician assistant studies (BSHS and MPA).

This position begins the week of August 23, 2016. Responsibilities include supervising nursing students at assigned hospitals or health care agencies in the field of psychiatric mental health nursing. The number of clinical groups may vary per semester. Reimbursement is based on the number of clinical sections supervised.

The preferred candidate will hold an earned master of science in nursing degree or working towards a master's degree and will have three or more years of clinical experience working in a health care environment.

To apply, submit a letter of application and curriculum vitae to Cynthia Felton at cynthia.felton@valpo.edu. For specific questions or additional information, contact Cynthia Felton by email or at 464.5294.
