

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE - DAY PROGRAM Final examinations will be May 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12. A final examination is required in all courses of 3 credits or more and must be given according to the following schedule. Exceptions may be made for such courses as independent study, practica and internships, performance, studio, and activity courses. In courses of less than 3 credits, final examinations are conducted during the regularly scheduled class periods.

In order to provide students with adequate opportunity to prepare for final examinations, no tests may be given in courses of 3 credits or more within 7 academic days prior to the beginning of the examination period. Any deviation from this policy must be approved by the dean of the college in which the course is offered.

Final examinations are for 2 hours, except for law examinations, as noted below. The rooms for the examinations in the regularly scheduled periods are the same as the lecture rooms unless a change is arranged and announced by the instructor.
