

GETTING STARTED

View the presentation for more information on how and why to study abroad!

Step 1: Learn about VU's study abroad options. Visit the Office of International Programs located at the Harre Union to talk about your interests in studying abroad.

Step 2: Talk to your academic advisor about taking courses on a study abroad program.

Step 3: Talk to the Office of Financial Aid to confirm how scholarships and other aid apply to your program of choice. Most scholarships and financial aid apply to all VU-affiliated programs.

Step 4: Submit an application to the Office of International Programs. Click on the "Application" tab to download an application and review the requirements.

Non-VU Students:

VU's Study Centers in Cambridge, England; Hangzhou, China and Reutlingen, Germany are open to non-VU applicants. Please contact Julie Maddox (julie.maddox@valpo.edu) to learn more about applying to a VU program.
