

SCENE SHOP

With direct communication to the University Theatre stage floor, the scene shop provides facilities for building 8-10 departmental productions per year. Stagecraft students learn to work with wood, steel, and plastic among other materials. Employing up to ten students per semester, the scene shop, with its great window, is a pleasant as well as an efficient place to work.

The PDF Footer