

PATRONS

The Department of Theatre invites you to become involved as an audience member or patron of the arts. Over 3,000 people a year gather in our intimate University and Studio theatres to enjoy engaging and thought-provoking plays, musicals, operas and dance produced by our dedicated faculty and students.

Beyond the stage, our students are involved in extra-curricular projects that combine their love for theatre with the university's mission to serve church and society. These student and faculty-led initiatives depend on financial contributions from our alumni and friends.

Donors may wish to contribute directly to the education of our students. Each year, the department offers scholarships to deserving students to support academic tuition as well as attendance at collegiate and professional theatre conferences and training opportunities.

Whether an audience member or patron, we thank you, in advance, for your support.
