UNIFIED IN PURPOSE, DISTINCT IN SERVICE

As a Valpo student, you have access to numerous campus resources committed to your success inside and outside the classroom. Take advantage of our learning centers, where peer tutors are available to help you grow as a writer, strengthen your learning strategies, practice language skills, and thrive during your academic journey.

Academic Success Center

Location:

Christopher Center for Library and Information Resources, Room 110

Director:

Tricia A. White

Function:

The ASC offers a variety of programs and services to support academic achievement, including the Peer Tutor Program (serving many 100-200 level courses), Supplemental Instruction and GS-100: Strategies for Academic Success (1-credit course). Visit, call or email the ASC to get more information about campus-wide academic support resources.

Appointments:

To find out whether or not you can be matched with a tutor in the Peer Tutoring Program for a 100-200 level course, the first step is to submit a Peer Tutor Request Form. A link to the form will be available on the ASC website during the fall and spring semesters.

Language Resource Center

Location:

College of Arts and Sciences Building, Room 240

Director:

Carol E. Goss

Function:

The LRC provides tutoring and resources for students of French, German, Spanish and other languages. We also facilitate opportunities for conversation exchange, including GS-106/180: English Conversation Partners, a 1-credit course that pairs international and domestic students for weekly conversation in English. Our computer lab and study spaces are available to all students.

Appointments:

Schedule using TutorTrac through the LRC website. Fall and spring semesters only.

Writing Center

Location:

Christopher Center for Library and Information Resources, Room 100

Director:

Salena Anderson

Function:

The Writing Center offers individual peer consultations and workshops on writing to support undergraduate and graduate students in their development as writers. In our sessions, we provide strategies and guidance on writing assignments from any discipline, at any stage in the writing process, and for writers at all skill levels.

Appointments:

Additional Campus Resources:

Counseling Center

Location:

Alumni Hall (Northeast side of building)

Director:

Stewart Cooper

Function:

The Counseling Center assists students in overcoming personal issues that may negatively impact their ability to be successful and to make the most out of their experience at Valparaiso University. The principle service is one-to-one counseling. Go to our website to access helpful on-line and in-office resources and to learn about the services you can receive.
