IMPORTANT

Your Next Step:

Reserve your place in Valpo’s summer 2015, fall 2015, or spring 2016 entering class and select your residence hall.

Once you have decided Valpo is the place for you, please use this Enrollment Deposit Form online at valpo.edu/admission/admitted, to reserve your place in Valparaiso University’s new entering class.

If you intend to live on campus, complete the residential portion of this form and mail with a $200 enrollment deposit ($100 is a tuition deposit and $100 is a housing deposit) to: Valparaiso University Undergraduate Admission, 1620 Chapel Drive, Valparaiso, IN, 46383, or pay online. Residence hall and roommate assignments will be mailed to fall students in mid-July.

If you intend to commute from home, complete only the tuition deposit agreement portion of this form and mail to Valparaiso University with the $100 deposit or pay online.

By submitting the Enrollment Deposit Form, you are indicating that Valparaiso University is your final college choice. However, if your enrollment intentions change after submitting the form and deposit, you must inform the Admission staff of your intent to cancel your enrollment. Your enrollment deposit will be refunded if written notice of cancellation is received by Undergraduate Admission by March 1 for the summer terms, May 1 for the fall semester, or Nov. 1 for spring 2016.

Valparaiso University provides equality of opportunity to its applicants for admission, enrolled students, graduates, and employees. The University does not discriminate with respect to hiring, continuation of employment, promotion and tenure, other employment practices, applications for admission, or career services and placement on the basis of race, color, gender, age, disability, national origin or ancestry, sexual orientation, or (as qualified herein) religion. An institution committed to its Lutheran tradition, the University reserves its right to promote the teaching of the church and to exercise preferences in admissions and employment-related practices in favor of Lutherans.

Valparaiso University is a tobacco-free environment.
Completion of this entire panel (or the online form at valpo.edu/admission/admitted) and the $200 tuition/housing deposit (payable to Valparaiso University) is required of all new Valparaiso University students intending to live on campus. All students are required to live on campus unless the commuter/off-campus eligibility criteria on the back page applies. Commuter students should only complete the other side of this form.

Completion of this entire panel (or the online form at valpo.edu/admission/admitted) and the $100 tuition deposit (payable to Valparaiso University) is required of all new Valpo students intending to commute from home or live off campus. The commuting policy allows students to commute to and from Valpo if they live within a “reasonable distance” of the University. This distance is generally defined as no greater than 50 miles, or a one-hour drive, whichever is less. Commuting students must live with a parent or legal guardian. Commuting from home is not the same as living off campus. Students are required to live in University housing unless they meet all eligibility criteria for off-campus living. (Residential students should complete only the other side of this form.)

Check One:

☐ I will live with my parent(s) or legal guardian(s) and commute from their home, which is within the approved commuting distance.

☐ I will live off campus. I am eligible to do so based on the following criteria:

☐ I will be 22 years old by Sept. 1, 2015.

☐ I am married.

☐ I am a veteran of active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces.

☐ I am the parent/legal guardian of a minor child with whom I will be living.
