

THE SERVICE OF
Holy Communion

All Saints Sunday
November 1, 2020

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

VALPARAISO UNIVERSITY

Chapel of the Resurrection

WELCOME!

The Chapel's Mission and Vision

Centered in Christ, the ministry of the Chapel of the Resurrection proclaims God's love, serves students, faculty, staff, and the wider community, and welcomes all.

A Special Note:

Our service is being livestreamed to YouTube today.

Worship Values & COVID-19 Protocols

Worship services at the Chapel will fully comply with all COVID-19 protocols established by Valparaiso University in dialogue with Chapel staff. Face coverings, social distancing, and a special distribution of Holy Communion are all part of this. All attending from off campus are subject to check in and screening in the narthex (lobby). Visitors will be required to wear a visitor badge. Because we are now being limited to having only 100 worshipers in our building, we will be pre-registering people for worship each week until further notice. A link can be found on our website (valpo.edu/chapel) and through Facebook. Please maintain three chairs vacant between yourself and others in your row who are not part of your household or quarantine pod.

Holy Communion

Special precautions are being taken with the distribution of Holy Communion.

This Service of Word and Sacrament today in the Chapel of the Resurrection is sponsored by Valparaiso University and conducted in accordance with Holy Scripture and the Lutheran Confessions. Lay men and women—students, faculty, and staff—assist the pastors in conducting the worship services and in carrying out the ministry in this community. The Holy Communion is celebrated here in the confidence of receiving from our Lord all that he promises when he gives his body and blood to eat and to drink. With such celebration goes the pastoral concern that all worshipers examine themselves lest they contradict Christ by sin against him and his people. In the Sacrament we are most fully one with Christ and with one another, and in this Meal we are nourished to live in faithfulness to Christ and his Word and in forgiveness and in love toward one another. Because communion at the table of our Lord is such a confession of faith, worshipers who are in doubt or who hold a differing confession of faith and yet desire to receive the Sacrament should first consult with one of the pastors. No one is required to commune. You also have the option to commune in one kind only (receiving either the bread or the wine alone) or to receive a personal blessing at the altar.

Cell Phones

Out of courtesy to others, please silence your cell phone when you are in the Chapel.

Rest Rooms

Rest rooms are available in the Undercroft, down the spiral staircase off the narthex at the southwest end of the building. Handicap accessible/family bathrooms are located in the Chapel narthex.

Offerings

The offerings received today fund the programming of the Chapel of the Resurrection's student ministries. You can scan the QR code (at left) to the link give.valpo.edu. Choose "other" and list "Chapel offering" in the comment box. Those desiring to make an offering by check are asked to make the check payable to "Valparaiso University" and include "Chapel Offering" in the memo line.

WORD

FIRST READING Revelation 7:9-17

L A reading from Revelation:

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!” And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;

for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Stand, as able.

ALLEUIA - Sung by cantors

The book of Revelation is written to seven churches in western Asia Minor during a time of great oppression. Today's reading is a response to the question asked in 6:17: "Who is able to stand?" The writer gives the faithful the assurance of God's protection and a vision of victory.

HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 5:1-12

P The Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

C Glory to you, O Lord!

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

P The Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ!

Sit.

SERMON

HYMN “Give Thanks for Saints” ELW 428 St. 1, 2 and 4

Cantors only will sing. Please do not sing along. You are invited to meditate on these words:

- 1 Give thanks for those whose faith is firm
when all around seems bleak:
on God’s good promise they rely,
so while they live and when they die
how forcefully they speak—
the strong, who once were weak!
- 2 Give thanks for those whose hope is clear,
beyond mere mortal sight:
who seek the city God has planned,
the true, eternal promised land,
and steer on toward that light,
a beacon ever bright.
- 4 Give thanks for saints of ages past
and saints alive today:
though often by this world despised,
their hearts by God are richly prized.
Give thanks that we may say we share their pilgrim way.

In the Beatitudes, Jesus provides a unique description of those who are blessed with God’s favor. His teaching is surprising and shocking to those who seek wealth, fame, and control over others.

RITE OF CONFIRMATION FOR JENNIFER ANN PERKNE

Confirmation Address

P Beloved in the Lord, our Lord Jesus Christ said to His apostles: “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. ... Lift up your hearts, therefore, to the God of all grace and joyfully give answer to what I now ask you in the name of the Lord.

Profession of Faith

P Do you this day in the presence of God and of this congregation acknowledge the gifts that God gave you in your Baptism?

R Yes, I do.

P Do you renounce the devil?

R Yes, I renounce him.

P Do you renounce all his works?

R Yes, I renounce them.

P Do you renounce all his ways?

R Yes, I renounce them.

The congregation is invited to join in the responses in bold.

P Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty?

R Yes, I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

P Do you believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord?

R Yes, I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

P Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

R Yes, I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

P Do you hold all the prophetic and apostolic Scriptures to be the inspired Word of God?

R I do.

P Do you confess the doctrine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, drawn from the Scriptures, as you have learned to know it from the Small Catechism, to be faithful and true?

R I do.

*...no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit.
– 1 Corinthians 12:3*

P Do you intend to hear the Word of God and receive the Lord's Supper faithfully?

R I do, by the grace of God.

P Do you intend to live according to the Word of God, and in faith, word, and deed to remain true to God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, even to death?

R I do, by the grace of God.

P Do you intend to continue steadfast in this confession and Church and to suffer all, even death, rather than fall away from it?

R I do, by the grace of God.

P We rejoice with thankful hearts that you have been baptized and have received the teaching of the Lord. You have confessed the faith and been absolved of your sins. As you continue to hear the Lord's Word and receive His blessed Sacrament, He who has begun a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

C Amen.

Confirmation Blessing

P Jennifer Ann, the almighty God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given you the new birth of water and of the Spirit and has forgiven you all your sins, strengthen you with His grace to life + everlasting.

R Amen.

Prayer for the Newly Confirmed

P Almighty and most merciful Father, in the waters of Holy Baptism You have united Your children in the suffering and death of Your Son Jesus Christ, cleansing them by His blood. Renew in them the gift of Your Holy Spirit, that they may live in daily contrition and repentance with a faith that ever clings to their Savior. Deliver them from the power of Satan and preserve them from false and dangerous doctrines, that they may remain faithful in hearing Christ's Word and receiving His body and blood. By the Lord's Supper strengthen them to believe that no one can make satisfaction for sin but Christ alone. Enable them to find joy and comfort only in Him, learning from this Sacrament to love You and their neighbor and to bear the cross with patience and joy until the day of the resurrection of their bodies to life immortal; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

The Peace

P Peace + be with you.

C Amen.

*Blessing and glory and honor and power and might be to our God
forever and ever!*

*Bless the LORD, O my soul . . . who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases.
(Psalm 103:2-3)*

OFFERTORY "I Will Sing a Song of Love" -John Bell

The cantors sing the canticle.

Chorus:

I will sing a song of love to the one who first loved me.
And I'll sing it as a child of God who is named and known and free.
For the love of God is good, it is broad and deep and long,
And above all else that matters God is worthy of my song.

And I will not sing alone, but with earth and sky and sea,
For creation raised its voice well in advance of me.

And I'll sing with ev'ry soul, ev'ry language, ev'ry race,
Which proclaims this world is good for God has blessed this place.

While my life on earth still runs, may my song to God be giv'n,
Till through grace I join the harmony of all in heav'n.

COMMUNION

Those who wish to receive the sacrament approach the altar, as directed. If you wish to receive communion at your seat, please tell an usher. Please pick up a sanitized individual glass. Once at the communion railing, please remain standing and do not touch the railing. Please remove your mask at the rail and extend your hand, palm up, to receive the body of Christ. Our bread is gluten- and dairy-free. After receiving the bread, extend your individual cup to receive the blood of Christ. Non-alcoholic wine is available.

If you wish to receive only wine, signal this by taking the empty cup and showing it to the presider as they pass with the bread.

After receiving the wine, communicants replace their face masks and return to their seats. Used glasses should be placed in the wooden bowl at the top of the stairs.

If you would like to receive a blessing rather than the sacrament fold your arms across your chest. There will be no physical contact when receiving a blessing.

Hand sanitizing stations are available as you enter and leave the chancel.
