

THE DREAM TREE

CC Freshman Production '87

A note from the executive committee:

In the last few weeks, the freshman Christ College class has scrambled to put together a show we hoped would be meaningful and entertaining. Of all the things we could say about the play and its meaning for us at this point, the best line comes from the play itself--

You can create anything, any sort of dream, any kind of life that you want . . .

--Old Man Harper

We'd like to take some time to acknowledge some very special people whose help has proved invaluable. Many thanks to

- John Paul, for directing, re-directing, and coping
- Mrs. Amundsen, for typing, copying, and coping
- Dean Meyer and the profs, for general coping
- Nord Keyboards, Ltd., coping with synthesizer use

- Anyone else who helped us cope

And now, just relax and enjoy the show!!!

STAR SONG

*I look to the sky
and I see stars
even when the sun is shining no matter where I'm looking there they are
I look to the sky
and I see stars*

*Antares
Vega
Polaris
Deneb
Altair*

I always knew I'd be a star and from my very birth I was one Momma said I used to dance and twirl just to get applause

*Drama
Comedy
Stage
Screen
TV*

*Life used to be so simple
Love was so very very easy
Joy was our theme song
There were stars in our eyes
They've fallen*

A KISS BLOWN INTO AIR

*We were too foolish to see
That wishing isn't reality
It's a kiss blown into air
Becoming real only if we dare
To reach for it while it's there*

*If that kiss goes floating by
It is lost no matter what we try
It's gone on a wayward path
Out of reach of your own stretched-out hand
Knowing not where it will land*

*If that kiss is somehow caught
The wish becomes reality sought Then how foolish would seem To ourselves so wise are we
A caught wish is reality*

LULLABY

*Little angel love
Lying in my arms
With her blue eyes closed
she still has all her charms
When she sleeps
She dreams of little clouds
Floating by her window sill
Little angel love
My pretty girl*
