CHRIST COLLEGE
FRESHMAN PRODUCTION
2010

In just ten weeks of intense collaboration, the 80-member Christ College first-year class writes and performs an original play with music based on themes encountered in the Christ College Freshman program— Texts and Contexts: Traditions of Human Thought. This creative project complements the analytical and expository emphases in the coursework.

Melanie is in her first year of college, and all she wants to do is get her laundry done. But when she finds herself spinning into a world she cannot control, everything changes. As she struggles to make her way back home with the help of some new friends, she gets caught in a tangled whirl of blackmail, rebellion and... socks?
