

Christ College Students to Attend 2019 National Conference on Undergraduate Research

Fourteen Christ College students had papers accepted for the 2019 National Conference on Undergraduate Research (NCUR). They traveled to the 33rd National Conference at Kennesaw State University, Kennesaw, Georgia on April 10-13, 2019. More than 3,000 undergraduates from more than 300 colleges and universities attended the three-day event. All work was competitively reviewed and selected for presentation at the conference by experts in the field.

This trip is made possible by generous contributions of alumni and friends to the Christ College Dean's Annual Fund.

Student	Title of Presentation
Christopher Bean '19	Screening Single-Atom Catalysts for Propane Dehydrogenation
Isabel Coffey '20	The American Writer's Museum: Rewriting the Script for America's Museum Experience
Joshua Duensing '21	The Imago Dei and CRISPR Cas9: The Christian Case for Genetic Alteration
Claire Ehr '19	Musical Imagery in the Four Quartets: Understanding Eliot's Conception of Time
Abigail Fate '19	Utilizing Stress: Manipulating Student's Stress Mindsets Determines Their Health and Functioning Outcomes
Jennifer Feutz '20	Normalization in Schools: Foucault & the Mental Health Crisis
Katherine Germann '20	Contemplating Paradoxical Doctrine Through Formal Structure in the Holy Sonnets
Daniel Herschel '19	Oh Happy Fault: The God-Like Curiosity of the First Woman in Genesis
Taylor Justison '20	Stoic Influence on Early Christian Theology: Why We Can't Ignore It
Zachary Long '19	Visualizing the Atomic Era: The Response of Japanese Cinema to the Atomic Bombs
Jenna Rifai '21	A Contested Concept: The Image of God in Islam
Rachel Silcox '19	Pluralistic Nationalism: The Example of the Kurds
Rachel Sims '19	Leaf Habit Versus Mycorrhizal Fungi Association: A Framework for Predicting Temperate Tree Species Effects on Soil
Kiley Webber '21	Revolutionary Virtue: A Look Into the Reynolds Affair