The College of Nursing and Health Professions (CONHP) invites applications for a faculty position in the Physician Assistant program. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

The Valparaiso University PA Program is a 5-year program including both an undergraduate and a graduate curriculum. Students will earn a Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences (BSHS) in the first 3 years and upon graduation from the BSHS program, students will enter into the 2-year graduate Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies (MSPA) program.

Physician Assistant Faculty will be responsible for the delivery of the educational content of the MSPA Program. Activities will include instruction, academic advising, program evaluation, clinical site development, and service on university committees and in other appropriate venues. The position is a full-time, 12-month faculty appointment. The position is announced at the assistant professor level; outstanding candidates may be considered for a higher rank commensurate with experience and scholarly activity. Physician Assistants with a master’s degree or higher and a minimum of three years clinical experience preferred.

The Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA) has granted Accreditation-Provisional status to the Valparaiso University Physician Assistant Program sponsored by Valparaiso University. Valparaiso University matriculated its first class in August 2018 to the graduate MSPA program.

To apply, submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, transcripts, three letters of recommendation, and a statement of teaching philosophy.
