

2021 BRUGH EMERGING LEADER AWARD

NOMINATION FORM

ABOUT THE AWARD

The Institute of Liturgical Studies at Valparaiso University seeks to recognize young leaders who have made or are making significant contributions in the areas of liturgy, congregational song, preaching, music, or writing for the whole church. Through this award, the Institute acknowledges significant gifts already made by these individuals for the good of the whole church and seeks to encourage and support them throughout their careers. The award is named for Lorraine Brugh, who served as Director of the Institute from 2005 to 2016. More information about the award and its past recipients can be found at <https://www.valpo.edu/institute-of-liturgical-studies/emerging-leader-award/>.

Nominations for the 2021 Brugh Emerging Leader Award are due by Sunday, January 31, 2021. Because most of the Valparaiso University community is working remotely, we recommend that this form be printed, completed, scanned, and returned via email to the ILS Co-Directors at jennifer.bakertrinity@valpo.edu and brian.johnson1@valpo.edu.

Nominator (Your) Information

--	--	--

Name

Email

Phone

Nominee Information

--	--	--

Name

Email

Age of Nominee

If unsure, please provide a best guess or range

Please answer the following questions about the nominee in the spaces provided

How do you know the nominee?

Describe the nominee's most significant contribution(s) the church so far. Such contributions may include, among others: publications, writings, leadership among peers, ongoing commitment to education and growth, and creative expressions that support the liturgy and song of the church.

In what way(s) do you envision the nominee contributing to the liturgy and song of the wider church in the future?

What else would you like the Institute to know about the nominee?