

Hello International Students!

We hope you were able to find some time for yourself over the Thanksgiving holidays. The last month of this year, heralding Christmas celebrations, has now arrived; while only a couple of weeks are left before the semester is over with all the deadlines looming, remember to just keep calm and finish strong! Here are a few events happening on campus this week which can be a source of respite from the hectic study routine.

The OIP

Ecuadorian Cultural Night, Thursday, 2nd Dec, 6:30 PM - 7:30 PM, Harre Union

VISA will be hosting an Ecuadorian Cultural Night event. Please come and enjoy some Ecuadorian snacks and learn about Ecuador throughout their Kahoot activities. The event will take place from 6:30 PM - 7:30 PM at the Ballroom in the Harre Union.

60 second International Alumni Referral Survey

If you haven't already, please fill out this very simple alumni referral survey based on the question: "Who referred you to come to Valpo?" In the OIP, we really like to keep in touch with our international alumni, and it would be so great to know if one of them recommended you to join the Valpo family!

Nursing and Health Professions Career Fair, 3rd Dec, 10 AM - 2 PM CST

Valparaiso University Career Center has scheduled a career fair for students majoring in nursing and health care related disciplines on 3rd Dec between 10 AM and 2 PM CST. Further details regarding the employers and event can be found on their Handshake page here.
