

Gender Clues

When studying vocabulary, always learn the gender of the noun. Often, you will simply have to memorize the gender. However, there are a few tips you can learn:

The ending of a noun is often a clue:

Masculine	Feminine
- eau	- ie
- isme	- sion
- ment	- tion
- age	- ure
- phone	- té
- scope	- ette
- eur	- euse
etc.	etc.

- Nouns that have come into French from other languages are usually, but not always, masculine: le jazz
- The names of languages are masculine, but never capitalized: le chinois
- The names of some professions, and many nouns that end in “e” in the masculine form, only have one singular form, used to refer to both males and females: le / la touriste

Gender Clues

When studying vocabulary, always learn the gender of the noun. Often, you will simply have to memorize the gender. However, there are a few tips you can learn:

The ending of a noun is often a clue:

Masculine	Feminine
- eau	- ie
- isme	- sion
- ment	- tion
- age	- ure
- phone	- té
- scope	- ette
- eur	- euse
etc.	etc.

- Nouns that have come into French from other languages are usually, but not always, masculine: le jazz
- The names of languages are masculine, but never capitalized: le chinois
- The names of some professions, and many nouns that end in “e” in the masculine form, only have one singular form, used to refer to both males and females: le / la touriste