

PROPOSED SUMMER SESSION 2014

The following proposed courses may be taught during Summer Session 2014:

ON-CAMPUS:

Proposed dates: May 27-July 29

210-A Evidence (Prof. Vandercoy) - 3 cr.

220-A Legal Profession (Prof. Cleveland) - 2 cr.

243-A Advanced Legal Research (Prof. Bushbaum) - 3 cr.

245-A Pretrial Skills (Prof. Carter) - 3 cr.

402-A UCC: Sales (Prof. Lind) - 2 cr.

410-A International Business Transactions (Prof. Trujillo) - 3 cr.

437-A Intellectual Property (Prof. Cichowski) - 3 cr.

467-A Criminal Procedure: Investigation (Prof. Wright) - 3 cr.

477-A Technology in Law (Librarians) - 3 cr.

652-A Trial Practice I (Prof. Welter) - 3 cr.

LONDON/CAMBRIDGE PROGRAM:

Proposed dates: June 23 - July 29

495-C1 English Legal Institutions (Prof. Gaffney) - 1 cr.

This course comprises the London portion of the program and provides students with a basic introduction to the process of lawmaking in Parliamentary government and the adjudication of civil and criminal cases in England, both at the trial and appellate levels. The course includes readings, lectures, and visits to important legal sites in London.

495-C2 Comparative National Security Law (Prof. Knowles) - 2 cr.

495-C3 International Immigration Law (Prof. Trujillo) - 2 cr.

SOUTH AMERICA PROGRAM:

Proposed dates: TBA

276-A1 Latin America: Human Rights (Prof. Adams) - 2 cr.

495-A1 Religion & International Human Rights (Prof. Calo) - 2 cr.